All Care In-Home Care Solutions Announces New Location for Its Grants Pass Office

GRANTS PASS, OR (July 17th, 2019) – All Care In-Home Care Solutions, the premier in-home care agency in southern Oregon, is pleased to announce it has moved its Grants Pass office to 1555 Williams Highway, Suite B. Proudly serving local families since 1994, All Care In-Home Care Solutions is the largest independently owned and operated home care agency in the Rogue Valley.

Owned and managed by brother and sister team, Ali Dean and David Pearlstein, All Care In-Home Care Solutions provides seniors and adults with disabilities high-quality and affordable access to in-home care. All Care In-Home Care Solutions' leadership team includes a diverse and accomplished group of professionals with backgrounds in nursing, public health, business development, care management and behavioral and community health. Together, this dynamic team of professional staff is meeting the in-home care needs for families throughout the area.

"Our new office location in Grants Pass is easily accessible for members of our community, enabling us to continue to provide the highest quality in-home care for area families," said Ali Dean, owner. Opened just over a year ago, the All Care In-Home Care Solutions location in Grants Pass has quickly established a strong, local presence. "With our more than 25 years in the caregiving space, local families feel confident in trusting All Care In-Home Care Solutions to provide uncompromised care for their loved ones," said Dean.

JoAnna Courtney serves as the Grants Pass office regional manager, and along with exceptional leadership skills, she brings a passionate commitment to helping clients maintain optimum health and independence. In addition to the Grant's Pass location, All Care In-Home Care Solutions has offices in Medford and Klamath Falls, and offers non-medical in-home care, nursing services, Alzheimer's and dementia care, and end-of-life comfort care.
